Don't you just love getting . . .

NEW TOOLS!!

Jorge's eyes brimmed with tears; his face broke into a huge smile. The Maya Indian native pastor from the Yucatán hugged me and said, "Hermano Jaime, after studying in this seminar, I feel like I am going home with a big, brand new, shiny tool box, full of NEW TOOLS!"

Can you relate to that? – the joy of seeing a shiny new tool chest in the garage or shop, as ideas for new projects flood the mind. Servicio de Educación Cristiana (S.E.C. - Christian Education Services) of the Assemblies of God in Latin America is in the business of placing new tools for more effective ministry in the hands of native pastors and church leaders through meaningful, effective training programs and resources.

As S.E.C. Coordinator, Jim now travels more extensively than ever throughout Latin America, offering direction and participating in educational seminars that equip national pastors, teachers, missionaries and leaders for effective ministry during these challenging times.

This coming September, 2009 a major planning meeting will be held involving key leaders from nineteen nations. This promises to be a watershed moment for Christian Education in Latin America on every level – from Sunday School to Bible School to Graduate School, potentially impacting millions (that's right, millions) of lives.

$15,000 is urgently needed to help fund this event as well as to assist our Latin American participants with their travel and lodging. Right now we are looking for thirty partners who will give $500.00 towards this strategic project. Please pray about having a part in placing NEW TOOLS in the hands of outstanding men and women who will in turn train others for ministry in places where neither you nor we may ever go, but where the Spirit of the Lord is, ready to guide and use His servants.

Yours for the harvest,

Jim & Ester
